Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Near the Colombia–Venezuela border, Venezuelan emigrants and refugees present the Church with an urgent need for pastoral and material support. In response, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America worked with the human rights office of the Archdiocese of Caracas, Caritas Venezuela, and the social justice ministry office of the Colombian conference of bishops to organize a January 2020 pastoral visit to programs serving refugees. During the visit, bishops and ministry leaders from Venezuela and Colombia met to assess and to raise awareness of the crisis in both countries.

Your support for the Collection for the Church in Latin America allowed the subcommittee to award an emergency grant of $10,000 to support humanitarian aid to migrants in the Diocese of Cúcuta in Colombia in February 2020. Located on the border, the Diocese of Cúcuta is a primary point of entry for fleeing Venezuelans who migrate to and through Colombia. In 2018 and 2019, the diocese was awarded three grants totaling $125,000 from the collection to assist with its migrant outreach programs. However, in 2020 the need became unprecedented.

By early 2020, two diocesan welcome centers for migrants were providing thousands of meals daily. What was once a parish initiative had become a systemic diocesan effort to support the growing number of migrants in need. This emergency grant provided a much-needed supplement to ensure that the programs continued.

By supporting the Collection for the Church in Latin America, you help local parishes address the immediate pastoral and material needs of these vulnerable refugee families. Thank you for your generosity to the collection.

Apoye la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina

Cerca de la frontera entre Colombia y Venezuela, emigrantes y refugiados venezolanos le presentan a la Iglesia la urgente necesidad de brindarles apoyo pastoral y material. Como respuesta, el subcomité para la Iglesia en América Latina de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos, trabajó con la oficina de derechos humanos de la Arquidiócesis de Caracas, con Caritas Venezuela y con la oficina pastoral de justicia social de la conferencia de obispos colombianos en enero del 2020, a fin de organizar una visita pastoral a programas que prestan servicios a los refugiados. Durante la visita, los obispos y los líderes pastorales de Venezuela y Colombia se reunieron para evaluar y crear conciencia sobre la crisis en ambos países.

Su apoyo a la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina le permitió al subcomité, en febrero del 2020, otorgar un subsidio de emergencia de $10,000 para financiar una ayuda humanitaria a migrantes en la Diócesis de Cúcuta, en Colombia. La Diócesis de Cúcuta, localizada en la frontera, es el principal punto de ingreso para aquellos venezolanos que huyen de su país y emigran hacia varios lugares de Colombia. En el 2018 y el 2019, a través de la colecta, se le otorgó a la diócesis tres subsidios que sumaron $125,000 para ayudar a sus programas de asistencia e información para migrantes. Sin embargo, en el 2020, la necesidad se convirtió en algo nunca antes visto.

A inicios del 2020, dos centros diocesanos de acogida para migrantes estuvieron proporcionando diariamente miles de comidas. Lo que al principio fue una iniciativa parroquial, hoy se ha convertido en un esfuerzo diocesano sistémico para asistir al creciente número de migrantes necesitados. Este subsidio de emergencia les proporcionó un suplemento muy necesario para asegurar la continuación de los programas.

Al apoyar a la Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina, usted está ayudando a las parroquias locales a responder a las necesidades pastorales y materiales inmediatas de estas familias de refugiados vulnerables. Muchas gracias por su generosa contribución a la colecta.

GET TO KNOW YOUR
SVDP PARISH:

"OPEN HEART OF JESUS"

Along the ambulatory inside the St. Vincent de Paul Church, you will come to the Open My Heart Chapel. The bronze statue is an expressive image of Jesus that intended to communicate the message that as children of God, we are all equal in His eyes and remain within His heart. This chapel features red votive candles and serves as the second of our two reconciliation areas.

The artist Timothy P. Schmalz portrayed humanity in the chest of Christ to show the relationship of us men with the humanity of Jesus and the closeness we feel in our relationship with Him. The sculpture shows Jesus opening his robe, symbolizing the opening of His Heart to us. The gaze of Jesus evokes a feeling of calling to come to Him and be like Him. The figures that symbolize "humanity" have been sculpted without clothing. Timothy wanted to create an image of humanity that reflected the humility and mortality of this earthly life, without forgetting that we are all children of God, naked before His eyes. The most human experience of Jesus was His crucifixion. He was crucified naked and so died on the cross. Having the figures of humanity naked reminds the viewer of his own mortality, in addition to helping this work of art to be contemporary at any time ... If they were dressed in 15th century clothing, for example, it would be very difficult for us to see ourselves reflect in them.

This creation of Timothy is a masterpiece that provokes and will provoke emotions and reflections of Christians now and for years to come. The fact that this sculpture was the subject of so much controversy, even before it was revealed to the public, is a compliment to the creator, and shows the power of creative art compared to repetitive catalog art!

CONOCE TU
PARROQUIA DE SVDP:

"CORAZÓN DE JESÚS ABIERTO"

A lo largo del deambulatorio dentro de la Iglesia de San Vicente de Paúl, llegará a la Capilla de Mi Corazón. La estatua de bronce es una imagen expresiva de Jesús que tiene la intención de comunicar el mensaje de que, como hijos de Dios, todos somos iguales ante Sus ojos y permanecemos dentro de Su corazón. Esta capilla cuenta con velas votivas rojas y sirve como la segunda de nuestras dos áreas de reconciliación.

El artista Timothy P. Schmalz retrató la humanidad en el pecho de Cristo para mostrar la relación de nosotros los hombres con la humanidad de Jesús y la cercanía que sentimos en nuestra relación con El. La escultura muestra a Jesús abriendo su túnica, simbolizando la apertura de Su Corazón a nosotros. La mirada de Jesús evoca un sentimiento de llamado para venir hacia El y ser como El. Las figuras que simbolizan la "humanidad" han sido esculpidas sin ropa. Timothy quiso crear una imagen de la humanidad que reflejara la humildad y mortalidad de esta vida terrenal, sin olvidar que somos todos hijos de Dios, desnudos ante Sus ojos. La experiencia más humana de Jesús fue Su crucifixión. El fue crucificado desnudo y murió así en la cruz. Tener las figuras de la humanidad desnudas le recuerda al espectador su propia mortalidad, además de que ayuda a esta obra de arte a ser contemporánea en cualquier época... Si estuviesen vestidas con ropa de siglo XV, por ejemplo, sería muy difícil para nosotros reflejarnos en ellas.

Esta creación de Timothy es una obra maestra que provoca y provocará emociones y reflexiones de Cristianos desde ahora y en años venideros. ¡El hecho de que esta escultura haya sido objeto de tanta controversia, aún antes de ser revelada al público, es un halago para el creador, y muestra el poder del arte creativo en comparación con el arte repetitivo de catálogo!
