Lent and the gift of time...

For many, Lent brings sobering thoughts; fasting, abstaining, sacrificing come to mind; forty days without the comfort of a favorite meal or activity – the gray days of Lent. Maybe this period suffers by comparison to the happier anticipation of Christmas that Advent offers, but Lent prepares us for the peak celebration of the liturgical calendar, Easter, honoring the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Originally Lent was a period of preparation for the Order of Catechumens as they concluded as much as a three-year journey of conversion to the mind, heart and will of Christ. Today the catechumenate (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) takes much less time, but its purpose is still to assist people in their search for God in the Catholic Church.

What about the rest of us? What does Lent have to do with those who are Catholic Christians already? We can look upon the 40 Days as a retreat during which we focus on God's mercy as it relates to our own sinfulness as individuals, as a church and as a society. In doing this we show our unity with those who are preparing to join the Church at Easter.

What else? "Giving up something for Lent" is a good disciplinary practice as far as it goes; but what is the purpose of such self-denial? I'd like to propose making a stronger resolution this Lent: let's resolve to grow closer to God and his Son Jesus. This takes time and effort, so try to give up something that at present takes away time from your relationship with the Lord, such as TV or time on the internet that could be used more productively. Resolve to watch less TV and spend less time on the internet and use the time saved to read a good spiritual book or to pray with scripture. Watching one less 30-minute program in the evening can mean 30 more minutes of time with God. Giving up desserts is a good way to lose some weight. Spending more time with the Lord is a good way to gain more of the joy of loving the One who loves us.

La cuaresma y el regalo del tiempo...

Para muchos, la Cuaresma trae pensamientos aleccionadores; ayunar, abstenerse, sacrificar vienen a la mente; cuarenta días sin la comodidad de una comida o actividad favorita: los días grises de la Cuaresma. Tal vez este período sufre en comparación con la anticipación más feliz de la Navidad que ofrece el Adviento, pero la Cuaresma nos prepara para la celebración máxima del calendario litúrgico, la Pascua, en honor a la Resurrección de Jesucristo. Originalmente, la Cuaresma fue un período de preparación para la Orden de los Catecúmenos, ya que concluyeron tanto como un viaje de conversión de tres años a la mente, el corazón y la voluntad de Cristo. Hoy el catecumenado (Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos) lleva mucho menos tiempo, pero su propósito es ayudar a las personas en su búsqueda de Dios en la Iglesia Católica.

¿Qué pasa con el resto de nosotros? ¿Qué tiene que ver la Cuaresma con aquellos que ya son cristianos católicos? Podemos considerar los 40 días como un retiro durante el cual nos enfocamos en la misericordia de Dios en lo que respecta a nuestra propia pecaminosidad como individuos, como iglesia y como sociedad. Al hacer esto, mostramos nuestra unidad con aquellos que se están preparando para unirse a la Iglesia en la Pascua.

¿Qué más? "Renunciar a algo para la Cuaresma" es una buena práctica disciplinaria hasta donde llega; ¿Pero cuál es el propósito de tal abnegación? Me gustaría proponer una resolución más fuerte en esta Cuaresma: resolvamos acercarnos a Dios y a su Hijo Jesús. Esto lleva tiempo y esfuerzo, así que trate de renunciar a algo que actualmente le quita tiempo a su relación con el Señor, como la televisión o el tiempo en Internet que podría usarse de manera más productiva. Resuelva mirar menos televisión y pasar menos tiempo en Internet y usar el tiempo ahorrado para leer un buen libro espiritual o rezar con las Escrituras. Mirar un programa de 30 minutos menos por la noche puede significar 30 minutos más de tiempo con Dios. Renunciar a los postres es una buena manera de perder peso. Pasar más tiempo con el Señor es una buena manera de obtener más alegría de amar a Aquel que nos ama.

HOSPITALITY FRIDAY For Lent

EPISODE 1: Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, remembered for his humor and conversational manner, explains the psychology of TEMPTATION in this memorable episode. Using illustrations and personal stories, Bishop Sheen teaches how temptation to sin grows from the act into the habit, and later into the compulsion. Learn how compulsion is not a sickness or disease, but rather a sin, and how we can live a life of obedience

STARTS FRIDAY
FEBRUARY 28TH @ 9:00 am

Celebrating Real Presence Celebrando la presencia real

It is precisely because the Word of God embraces and extends beyond Scripture that, in order to properly understand it, the Holy Spirit's constant presence, who guides us "to all truth," is necessary. It is necessary to place ourselves within the great Tradition that has, with the Holy Spirit's assistance and the Magisterium's guidance, recognized the canonical writings as the Word that God addresses to his people, who have never ceased meditating upon it and discovering inexhaustible riches from it.—Pope Francis

Find out how each of us, the Word of God, the Eucharist and the works that we do define the REAL PRESENCE at the Parish Mission as we renew our understanding and place ourselves in the presence of the body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ. March 7th & 8th @ SVDP Catholic Church

Precisamente porque la Palabra de Dios abarca y se extiende más allá de las Escrituras, para comprenderla adecuadamente, es necesaria la presencia constante del Espíritu Santo, que nos guía "a toda verdad". Es necesario ubicarnos dentro de la gran Tradición que, con la ayuda del Espíritu Santo y la guía del Magisterio, reconoció los escritos canónicos como la Palabra que Dios dirige a su pueblo, que nunca ha dejado de meditar sobre ella y descubrir riquezas inagotables. -Papa Francisco

Descubra cómo cada uno de nosotros, la Palabra de Dios, la Eucaristía y las obras que hacemos definen la PRESENCIA REAL en la Misión Parroquial a medida que renovamos nuestra comprensión y nos ubicamos en la presencia del cuerpo y la sangre, el alma y la divinidad de Jesucristo. 7 y 8 de marzo en la Iglesia Católica SVDP.

Girl Scout Troop 5349 is holding a toiletries coupon collection drive. The girls are asking for your help to donate any coupons you have for toiletry items such as toothbrushes, toothpaste, baby diapers, wipes, soap, etc. A collection bucket will be placed in the gathering space for you to drop off any coupons. That's it, just coupons! We will then organize a shopping trip to use these coupons to collect these toiletries doing an extreme couponing and see how little we can spend to donate needed supplies to the Saint Vincent de Paul's Food Pantry. Please help us with this cost free donation of coupons by collecting them from your newspapers and online sources throughout the spring to make a big difference for those in our community in need! Thank you!!

Girl Scout Tropa 5349 tiene una unidad de recolección de cupones de artículos de tocador. Las chicas están pidiendo su ayuda para donar cualquier cupón que tenga para artículos de tocador como cepillos de dientes, pasta de dientes, pañales para bebés, toallitas, jabón, etc. Se colocará un cubo de recolección en el espacio de reunión para que pueda dejar cualquier cupón. Eso es todo, ¡solo cupones! Luego organizaremos un viaje de compras para usar estos cupones para recolectar estos artículos de tocador haciendo un cupón extremo y veremos qué poco podemos gastar para donar los suministros necesarios a la despensa de alimentos de Saint Vincent de Paul. ¡Ayúdenos con esta donación gratuita de cupones reuniéndolos de sus periódicos y de la internet durante la primavera para hacer una gran diferencia para aquellos en nuestra comunidad que lo necesitan! ¡¡Gracias!!

SESSION 7 Exposing the Mask: What Relativism Is Often Covering Up

When talking with our relativistic friends, we must realize that the real issue needing to be addressed isn't always the particular moral topic we're debating. We might be talking about sexual ethics, abortion, or the environment. But we should keep in mind that some people hold relativistic positions because they need a way to deal with mistakes they've made in their own personal moral lives. Their relativism is not primarily an intellectual problem, but a sin problem.

Twenty-two years ago, St. Vincent de Paul Catholic School held their first Mardi Carlo Fundraiser in the school gym to help raise additional funds for the school and students. Since then, the fundraiser has evolved from Mardi Gras, to Denim and Diamonds, to Tapas and Tinis, and now, to A Knight to Remember at the Embassy Suites. This has been such an important event over the years because it has funded supplementary projects for the school's facilities and our student body: from our security system, gym floor, and school bus upgrade, to Chromebooks, technology updates, and scholarships for our students.

This year's theme is Under the City Lights, a New York based evening, with dinner (which includes an herb de Provence crusted chicken breast, garlic mashed potatoes, grilled veggies, strawberry feta spinach salad, and layered lemon Italian cake), dancing (by Brock Entertainment), silent auction items, and live auction items. The attire is generally a bit formal to this event, but it is not necessary to wear a tuxedo and a long gown. Cocktail dresses, elegant pantsuits, dark suits, or nice casual attire are all perfectly acceptable.

I would like to personally invite everyone to attend A Knight to Remember on Saturday, February 29. Make it a date night with your significant other or a night out with friends. Doors open at 6:30pm. Tickets must be purchased in advance by going to <http://bidpal.net/svdpknights2020> or contacting me at kleinerr@svdpschool.net. I look forward to seeing you there!

- Rosemary Kleiner, 2020 AKTR Chairperson

P.S. We are also selling raffle tickets for FREE TUITION leading up to the event. The prize is free tuition for one K-8th grade student for the 2020-2021 School Year. Tickets are $100 each and only 100 tickets will be sold! Currently less than half of the tickets remain. If you are interested, go by the school office to fill out a form for your entry. The drawing will be held the night of the event on February 29, 2020. You do not need to be present to win.
